SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith a copy of letter dated the 10th September 1924 from Mr. A. V. Raghavachar, one of our Loan Scholars, now undergoing some practical course in Manchester. In view of the fact that he seems to be undergoing considerable difficulties, I have the honor to recommend that a further loan of Rs 1,000/- may be granted to him the same being made repayable along with other loans.

Copy of letter dated the 10th September 1924 from Mr. A. V. Raghavachar, College of Technology, Manchester, to the Director of Industries and Commerce in Mysore, Bangalore.

I have finished the research course in the College of Technology and would like to have a practical training for a short time before I return home. I have been accepted as an apprentice by Messrs. Marshall Sons & Co., Brittania Iron Works, Gainsborough, but they will not pay me any salary. Will it not be possible for Government to pay me a small allowance of say Rs 1,000/-. Will they not consider it as a mere loan? It is very discouraging that one's merit etc., is not appreciated even in one's own country. If the Government gives me the above sum I can have a few months' practical training and it can be easily taken out of any salary ~~they~~ which the Government pays when they entertain my services. I hope the Government will consider this and not let me down. Will you please favour me with a reply by return of mail.
